Decorah, with a population of approx. 8,000, is located in scenic northeast Iowa. Decorah is centered in a diversified agricultural area and is proud of its industries: Stanley Fastening, Deco Products Co., Rockwell-Collins Corp., Gemini Inc., and Iowa Rotocast Plastics to name a few.

Decorah has a Mayor/Council form of government with a City Administrator and supports a full-time Parks & Recreation Department that tends to recreational needs of the area residents and tourists. Decorah boasts 11 parks totaling 473 acres including many hiking and cycling trails. The community recently has completed a twelve-mile paved bike path that circles the city and provides connection to other features in the community. The Upper Iowa River flows through the City of Decorah offering excellent smallmouth bass fishing; as well as canoeing, tubing, and kayaking opportunities. Two museums are also attractions.

Education begins in our licensed and attractive preschool and day-care centers. The Decorah public school system, with a total enrollment of approximately 1,600 students, has an enviable record academically and in co-curricular activities. St. Benedict's Church operates an excellent parochial school, grades K-8. Luther College provides a four-year liberal arts curriculum for 2,000 students and serves as host to many cultural events available to the community.

Medical care is tops, beginning with our Winneshiek Medical Center, supported by outstanding doctors and a strong staff of specialists and staff associated with the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, MN and the Gundersen Clinic, La Crosse, WI.
